

Chris does it in one hour!

Christopher, just 11, in the sixth grade.

December 26, 2006

Set up computer by GF, with minimal instructions to Chris.

On computer display: Opened Word and set font size to 20. Opened Cheat Sheet.pdf and showed printed Cheat Sheet. Did not discuss it. He figured it out with a couple of chord presses.

5 min Opened Chording Book.pdf; he wasn't interested. I don't believe he looked at it. Opened Exercise Book.pdf. Showed first exercises, then one letter with 9, then 26 letter sentences.

He said, "I want to learn the alphabet now." So he started right in, as shown here.

10 min the eastern shore has a roan horse on it, near the sea.
Pete quickly spotted the five women dozing in the jury box.
pack my box with five dozen liquor lugs.

25 min First session: 25 minutes, including GF setup as above. Completed 2 26 letter sentences. Learned all letters except z and u.

61 min Second session: 36 minutes. learned z and u. Needed brief help - didn't know about Alpha chord. Got punctuation including exclamation mark. GF pointed out Navig on Cheat Sheet.

Third session: 30 minutes. Played with navigation. composed sentences below.

the troop spots the tape; stop!

this aide aids the dear doe to eat her dinner. the house has a lots of light! but the house is very boring.

the zoo is very fun. Tomorrow me and my mom are going to the zoo!

91 min Finished the learning session and demonstrated ability to compose sentences.
